Stories-n-Stones Program for Kids on Nov. 4 at Dickson Mounds

LEWISTOWN, IL – Dickson Mounds Museum will host an afternoon of Native American storytelling accompanied by demonstrations of the creation and use of ancient tools and crafts on Saturday, November 4 from 1:00-4:00 p.m. Experimental Archaeologist Larry Kinsella and his wife, professional storyteller Marilyn Kinsella, have combined their talents to produce this informative, entertaining, hands-on program. Kids may enjoy activities such as cordage making, pottery, using hand micro-drills, flint knapping, and spear throwing.

Kid's Day programs are geared toward children ages 5 and up with an adult. Registration is not required. The show begins at 1:00 p.m. in the Museum's auditorium. Tickets will be available on a first come, first served basis beginning at 12:00 p.m. in the Museum's lobby. Space is limited. Admission is free; donations are appreciated.

The Illinois State Museum-Dickson Mounds is located between Lewistown and Havana off Illinois Routes 78 and 97. The museum is open free to the public from 8:30 a.m. to 5 p.m. every day. Tours and special programs are available for groups with reservations. For more information call 309-547-3721 or TTY 217-782-9175.
