

Partner and promotional agreement form

Illinois America 250th Partnership and Promotional Agreement

The Illinois America 250 Commission invites businesses, nonprofits, educational, cultural, and civic organizations, and government agencies to be promotional partners in commemorating the 250th anniversary of the signing of the Declaration of Independence. By joining this effort, partners demonstrate a shared commitment to honor Illinois' contributions to our nation's history, inspire civic engagement, and celebrate the diverse stories and contributions of Illinois communities.

We will review forms regularly. If additional information is needed during the review period, we will reach out to the person designated as the "primary contact" on the form below.

Thank you for your interest!
